

CCIS Berlin Residential Program

1. German Language

Course Title:	German Language (elementary, intermediate or advanced)
Credits:	3
Subject Category:	Foreign Language/Culture
Program Name:	Berlin Residential Program
Country:	Germany
Sponsoring Institution:	Nazareth College, Rochester NY
Host Institution:	Studienforum Berlin e.V.
Description:	The study of language at DIE NEUE SCHULE, an international language school in Berlin. Intensive language learning at all levels with other international students. Course levels and curriculum follow the EU "Referenzrahmen" (guidelines) of the European Union for language acquisition. All instructors are specially trained in German language acquisition and pedagogy. Students with no prior German language experience enroll in the A1 level. At all levels: emphasis on active listening and speaking and reading/spelling abilities. Intermediate and advanced levels help prepare students acquire all the skills required for independent interaction in the society or to pass German university entrance exams. The course is conducted intensively during the first month of the semester.